

Rubric Task 4: Literary Report (3HV)

	Minimal requirements	Suggestions* to score 20 gems extra
	Language level You're use of English is at the appropriate level.	Your level of English exceeds what we expect in the third year.
	Report Your report consists of the following things <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Introduction (your opinion of the book, the title of your book and its author) - Body (explanation of two literary terms in two sentences each and a description of 5-10 sentences each of how those literary terms occur in your book) - Conclusion (a summarized overview of how the literary terms occur in your book and your opinion on if they make the book good or bad) Not only have you added all those elements, but you've did this sufficiently	The use and explanation of literary terms in relation to book is outstanding!
	Relation to the book It is clear from reading your report that you have read the book.
	Notebook You've answered all the questions in full sentences and structured your work with using headings and so forth	You've structured your work extremely well and have written neatly and with use of full sentences

*These are just some suggestions. Other exceptional performances can likewise result in GEM awards too.